

Our events will be hosted virtually in 2021 until further notice.

Please note: We hope to resume our face-to-face conferences at some point during 2021. However, should the status of the pandemic not allow us to do this safely, our events will continue to be delivered virtually. Please check individual event pages for details.

In response, we are offering virtual and digital sponsorship opportunities for companies and organisations who wish to support our programme, and position themselves at the centre of interactions within multidisciplinary scientific, academic and research communities.

Virtual Conference Package: £500 +VAT
